PRIMARY PRACTICES

Litigation

Complex Commercial Litigation

Fiduciary Litigation

Appellate Advocacy

Allison B. Christensen is an experienced litigation attorney, handling disputes in Southwest Florida and around the state, in both state and federal court. She works closely with her clients to deliver outcomes that meet their business, personal and legal objectives. Allison is licensed to practice law in Florida and Michigan. She is also the Partner-in-Charge of our Naples office.

Probate and Trust Litigation

Allison provides strategic counseling and legal advice to individuals and institutional trustees on a variety of matters, including contested wills and trusts (e.g. undue influence and capacity challenges), disputed estate and trust administrations, trust modifications, revocations and terminations, and surviving spousal rights and elective share disputes.

Commercial Litigation

Allison also practices commercial litigation, providing advice and guidance to clients with business disputes, contract disputes, shareholder and partnership disputes, business torts, business transactions and real estate and construction contracts.

Allison has been repeatedly recognized by Martindale-Hubbell, Best Lawyers and Florida Super Lawyers for her litigation experience and client outcomes. She is also a graduate of the Florida Fellows Institute of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel.

Having survived nearly three decades of snowy winters in Michigan, Allison now enjoys the fun and sun of Southwest Florida with her daughters. She is a proud graduate of the University of Michigan, continues to root for the Wolverines, and was a Detroit Lions fan before it was cool.
