Jeradon Z. Mura is an Associate in Hahn Loeser's Cleveland office and is a member of the firm's Labor & Employment practice area, where she guides clients through legal issues that may arise during the employment relationship, from hiring through termination. Jeradon counsels clients on employment-related matters, drafts employment agreements and policies, and conducts training on employment matters. Jeradon also advises on insurance coverage questions and represents clients in automobile and trucking litigation.

Jeradon's practice is built on several years of insurance defense and civil litigation experience. She has experience counseling individuals and corporations through personal injury litigation from both the plaintiff and defense sides.

Prior to joining Hahn Loeser, Jeradon was a Litigation Consultant who advised on strategic defense of various high exposure and high sensitivity civil litigation matters. She also has extensive experience advising and training on legal and business implications of internal corporate policy choices as well as the impact of legislative changes on corporate practices.

Jeradon also served as a Judicial Intern for Judge Michael Jackson of the Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Courthouse and was a Legal Fellow with Human Rights Watch focusing on data privacy and civil rights advocacy, INTERPOL, the United Nations Assistance to the Khmer Rouge Trials, and the Public International Law & Policy Group.
