Litigation

Complex Commercial Litigation

Victoria Manfredonia is an associate in Hahn Loeser's San Diego office and is a member of the firm's Litigation Group. Victoria represents clients in a variety of commercial matters, including privacy and data litigation and advising, business torts, and contract and shareholder disputes, amongst others. Approaching complex matters with practical business solutions, Victoria strives to ensure clients know exactly the direction they should be headed at every stage and that they have the resources to do so with confidence.

Prior to joining Hahn Loeser, Victoria was a litigation associate at a leading Midwest firm. Victoria additionally worked in corporate bankruptcy, representing trustees and debtors in possession in avoidance action litigation.
